Our Glencoe locals came too late for the late dramatic entertainment held here, gives it the benefit of the doubt, as there was too much noise to hear the court of the seminently right. I do say that I pronounce sentence upon you, and the sentence is: That you be taken from this room to the Jail of the County, and that research the sate of Ohio and be confined at hard labor for the term of seven years and pay the costs of this prosecution. Remand the prisoner.

Douglass came in, pale and haggard, leaning upon the shoulders of two Constables, scarcely able to speak. The Court asked him if he could stand up, he said in a whisper that he could not. The Court then passed sentence, stating that there were some circumstances connected with the case of an extenuating character, and that after full deliberation, he would order that the prisoner be taken from the Court room to the jail of the Courty, and within ten days from the could stand up, he said in a whisper that he could not. A dressing which is at once agreeable. healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are de-stroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING. nothing else can be found so desirable Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.
